Level 1

My name is Anaya and I love the ocean.

If I could be a princess, I would want to be princess of the ocean!

I am very brave and I never give up! I always think bravely and believe that I am brave.

I was enjoying the sound of the ocean hitting the sand, until a flying fish jumped out of the water in need of help!

I never give up on problems so I wanted to help him.

Scared and sad, the flying fish told me the moon had fallen from the sky.
I knew I had to venture deep into the ocean to find the moon!

The moon had surely fallen! The seas are so scary and big and strong!
I am very afraid of the ocean! It is big and strong and it pushes me!
Time to hold your breath with me. This is going to be a wet adventure.
"Splash!"

The ocean is beautiful and I was very fortunate to see it all!
I promised I will never give up no matter how hard the problem is.

I met a giant squid and I asked him to help us find the moon together!
He said no but I never gave up and kept asking him.
He finally said yes, so he joined me and the flying fish on the adventure.

After swimming deeper in the ocean, I met an Angler Fish! He is a fish with sharp teeth as sharp as knives, with a light in the top of his head! He told me I must find the moon because his light needs the moon to stay on! He asked to join us.

After swimming in the depths of the ocean, we found it! We were able to put it back where it belongs!

What a night! We saved the moon and made friends along the way!
