Once there was a beautiful village named KUNDALPUR

One night an old man was walking on the streets of Kundalpur village. It was late and the streets were lonely. The man was happy as he had earned a lot of money that day but suddenly he heard a hissing sound. He was afraid.

Handover all your money ,jewels and belongings and run away

HA !HA!HA!
I am a ghost if you want to be alive do as I say.

Suddenly a ghost appeared from nowhere.

The man handed whatever he had and ran away. The news of a ghost in the village spread fast.

Chinti ,her brother Montu and her friends were well known for their bravery.

Chinti and Montu along with their friends decide that they will search for the ghost at night.

At night all the children secretly came out of their house and gathered in a park where the ghost was seen last time. Next they decided who will search which place.

Montu and ritesh search behind the broken wall .

Suddenly a flock of bats came towards Ritesh. He screamed and ran away and told everything to Montu.

No one was able to find the ghost. Soon they all gathered. Every one was sad except Chinti. She gave them a motivating speech and reminded them of the secret cave which they had discovered a month ago and none of them had searched that part. Chinti carrying a thick stick led them to that place and hid behind the trees.

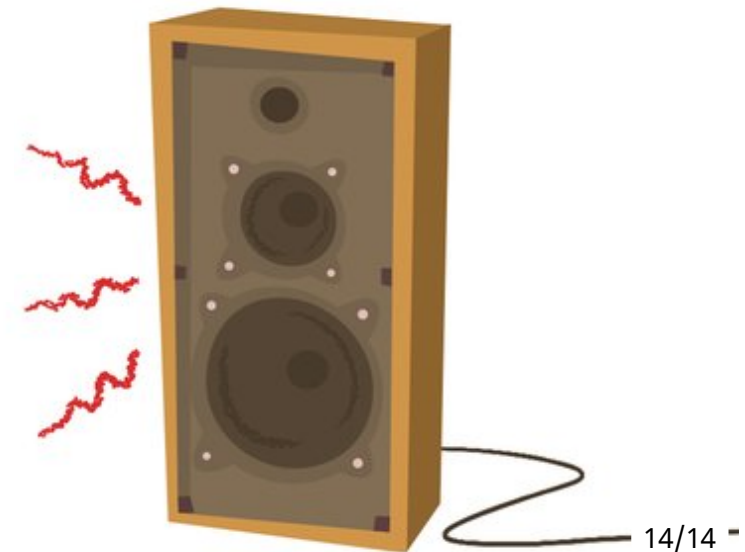

Soon enough they saw someone in ghost costume and in a flash Chinti rushed to the ghost and started beating him with the stick. Listening to the cry of the man which was dressed as a ghost his partners came to protect him but were badly beaten by the kids .

Montu rushed to the village and called the policeman. The police came back with Montu and arrested the thieves. The police admired the group and told them that they had been searching for this gang since months but couldn't find them. They were also invited for prize distribution ceremony for the bravest kids.

Thus all ended well in the village of Kundalpur. The kids were awarded ,praised and most importantly offered lots of sweets and candies...
