Level 1

Once upon a time, there was a cow called Ginger who lived on a farm.

A little girl called Abby also lived on the farm. One day, Abby spotted Ginger and saw that she wanted to eat cookies.

Abby had ten cookies.
Abby went outside and gave half
of her cookies to her new friend.
Abby was left with five cookies.

Ginger was very happy. She loved cookies! Abby saw just how happy Ginger was and so she gave Ginger the last five cookies.

Abby was sad. She only had two cookies left! So Abby went back home to bake more cookies with her mother.

The next day, Abby took Ginger twelve cookies. Ginger ate eight of them and left four of the cookies for Abby.

Abby and Ginger carried on sharing their cookies.
They became great friends.
