Fishing in My Village

Author: Phoxay Chanthavongsa

Illustrator: Nivong Sengsakoun

Translator: Sanjana Khoobchandani

Last night, it rained so hard that water overflowed the river banks.

The villagers got excited and started fishing!

Thao Thong fished with a hook and line, and caught a big striped snakehead fish.

Nang Khambai fished with a fishing cage and caught a silver barb.

Nang Bouakhao's fishing net caught shrimp.

Grandfather Boun used a cast net to catch an Asian red-tailed catfish.

Thao Kood fished with gillnets and caught mud crabs.

Grandmother Pheng
fished with lift nets and caught river carp.

Uncle Khampiew used a trap and caught catfish.

Aunt Kham Souk went spin fishing and caught a broadhead walking catfish.

Thao So fished with a pole and line and caught a basa fish.

At noon, the villagers enjoyed their catch.
They cooked all the fish and had lunch together by the river.
