Level 1

It was December and snow was starting to fall. The winter breeze was in the air and the feel of the cold strong wind was everywhere.

It was Sophie's favourite time of the year, as she loved looking at the christmas trees covered in lights.

She was going to have cookies and milk every single night!

But Sophie was confused to see that there was nothing on the table for her to eat.

"Who ate my cookies? Who drank my milk?" Sophie said.

"Grandma, Grandma! Someone ate my cookies! Someone drank my milk!" she said.. Her grandma told her that maybe it was her father.

Sophie quickly ran to her dad and asked if he had eaten her cookies and had her milk, but he said no. He told her to ask her mother.

Her mother told her that maybe it was Santa. Cookies are his favourite snack and milk is also his favourite drink!

"Santa?" asked Sophie with excitement.

The next night, Sophie hid behind the Christmas tree. She decided to stay there until she caught Santa.

But instead of seeing Santa Claus, her cookies and milk were actually being consumed by a mouse!

She was so sad that it wasn't Santa.

THE END
