

Billy's Dream

Author: Anuj Kumar

Illustrators: Priya Kuriyan, Rijuta Ghatge

Level 1

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Billy. He was very imaginative. He used to think about so many things and imagine himself doing that.

On Monday, Billy was sitting outside his house where he saw some sparrows flying. He imagined that he was flying like those sparrows and talking to them.

On Tuesday, Billy went to the garden and saw a beautiful butterfly, He imagined that he had colourful wings like a butterfly and he was fluttering around the flowers.

On Wednesday, Billy was sitting on the terrace and he saw an aeroplane, he was so happy to see it and imagined that like a plane he is flying in the sky between the clouds.

On Thursday, Billy saw his friends who were flying the kites, he imagined to be a kite and fly high with other colorful kites and bring a smile on his friend's face.

On Friday, Billy listened to a story about a super-speedy rocket. He was very excited and imagined that he is going to space in the rocket and from there he can see the beautiful Earth.

On Saturday, Billy was flying above the buildings with an eagle. He was so happy to see the things down. Tall buildings were looking really small, vehicles and people were looking very tiny. He was amazed to see that.

On Sunday morning when Billy opened his eyes, he found out that he was sleeping on his mother's lap. He told his mother about his imagination.

His mother picked him up and gave him a smile. She told him that it was just a dream. Billy also smiled back at his mother and said yes ma I am a dreamer.
