

Colourful Spring

Authors: Mala Kumar, Manisha Chaudhry

Illustrator: Priya Kuriyan

Re-level: sundari

Level 1

My parents say it is the first day of spring.

In India, people pray to the goddess of learning.

Just like my new frock, Amma is also wearing a yellow sari.

Grandpa wants me to plant a tree.

I asked why?

"Spring is a good season to start something new."

We went to the garden to plant a sapling.

In the garden, Meenu saw a cat chasing a squirrel.

There is a carpet of leaves under some trees.

Trees look so pretty in spring with colourful flowers.

Meenu put the flowers in a keg of water. The water has turned bright in colour.

Spring is such a happy season to all.
