They practice riding the baby elephants and horses.

They play football and play hide and seek in the long grass.

They dig the fields and pick vegetables.

The friendly crocodiles lay their eggs by the shore and watch over them.

The ants collect scraps of food and return to their hills.

The lizards wander through the fields, watched by their mother.

The scarecrow stands alone in the field and warns off the birds.

The birds build their nests in the house and return with food...

...and when the day is over,
the sun says goodbye and
