An old woman had chickens and an old rooster.
Her grandson visited her. She decided to kill the old rooster.
The old rooster ran away to the big city.
The old rooster met the cat running away from her boss.
The old rooster and the cat met the dog running away.
They were joined by a horse which was running away too.
The animals came to a house. They saw thieves inside!
The animals sang loudly to chase away the thieves.
They ate the food they found in the house.
The thieves returned later. The animals attacked them.
The thieves ran away forever.
The animals lived together happily in the house.
Story Attribution:
This story: Animals Run Away is written by Cissy Kiwanuka Luyiga. © African Storybook Initiative, 2014. Some rights reserved. Released under CC BY 4.0 license.

Other Credits:
This book "Animals Run Away" has been published on StoryWeaver by African Storybook Initiative.

Images Attributions:

Disclaimer: https://www.storyweaver.org.in/terms_and_conditions
Images Attributions:

Disclaimer: https://www.storyweaver.org.in/terms_and_conditions
Animals Run Away
(English)

This is a Level 1 book for children who are eager to begin reading.

Four animals run away from their ungrateful owners to find a place to live on their own.

Pratham Books goes digital to weave a whole new chapter in the realm of multilingual children's stories. Knitting together children, authors, illustrators and publishers. Folding in teachers, and translators. To create a rich fabric of openly licensed multilingual stories for the children of India and the world. Our unique online platform, StoryWeaver, is a playground where children, parents, teachers and librarians can get creative. Come, start weaving today, and help us get a book in every child's hand!